Configure

If an entire bundled promotion is created with all the simple products and does not have any required custom option for these products, this bundle will show simple add to cart button. This will add all products with configured quantity in to the cart. The best part of this extension is that, extension supports all type of product (except group type) with promotions. Hence, if you have added configurable, bundle product or if simple product has custom configuration options, it will show you configure button instead of add to cart. While you click on configure button, it will show you a popup box with list of all product options. Customer can configure required option in accordance with their requirement.

In the pop-up customer will ask for the custom/configuration options for all individual products, customer can choose required options and add it to cart.
