

Magento2 Japanese Region Data user manual

What is this extension's purpose

- Magento2 does not contain Japanese region data. This extension aims to develop for installing Japanese region data.
- This extension does not have any configuration. Just install this, you can see Japanese regions list on region select box.

Notice

- We can provide Japanese and English data, but cannot provide other language data. If you hope to use Japanese region for other languages, please add your own data into Magento2 database.
- This extension does not have uninstall script. Therefore if you uninstalled this extension, Japanese locale data were left on your database. If you hope to delete them, please check these data contain Japanese region id.
 - Customer address
 - Order address
 - Quote address
 - And any other extensions